Classes and Stalling

1. Purebred and percentage cattle carrying a breed association paper will show in that breed class. Commercial cattle will show as AOB.
2. Stalling will be limited with no additional tack space outside of the space that you book. Heifers and bulls will be shown on separate days, therefore cattle can be stalled in tie outs on the off day of their show, if exhibitors want to bring more than what fits in the allotted stall.
3. There must be a minimum of 5 head entered to make up a breed class
4. Stalling will be assigned after entries are closed and upon receipt of your payment. Allocation of space is at the discretion of Stettler District Agricultural Society (SAS) board of directors. Animals from each exhibitor will be stalled together

Rules and Regulations

1. Cancellation of entries and/or space is non-refundable.

7. All animals must have CCIA approved tags.
8. All cattle in attendance must be free of infectious and contagious diseases. (i.e. ringworm)
